ABOUT ME

I am a developing translator and interpreter, focused on simple translations and consecutive interpretation in meetings, interviews, and audiovisual content. I have practical experience subtitling English-to-Portuguese videos for YouTube, and I dedicate myself daily to improving my English through reading books, listening to podcasts, and watching TV shows without subtitles.

As a musician, I am used to creative and international environments, which makes me comfortable working in music-related and cultural contexts.

I am constantly improving my vocabulary and fluency, always aiming to deliver clear and natural translations that connect people and ideas.
