JOSÉ PEDRO RODRIGUES

Born at home in 1999 seems I have got a bit used to this place: no one got me out of my «dark cave» yet.

Lies! I went to the University of Minho for three years and had to move there. However, my home is my workplace, at least for now!

A gamer since the age of six who loves both games and languages and aims to make a life out of it. Despite being professional I think that a good laugh is always welcome in the workplace.

I was always told that you can't have both fun and a job at the same time. Agree to disagree. One who does something with joy will for sure have a good time working. That's me!
