CAREER HISTORY:

As a Full-time Freelance Translator specializing in Finnish and English, I've spent years crafting a unique expertise. My work entails seamlessly converting complex ideas and nuances between these two languages, ensuring clear and culturally accurate communication. I've had the privilege of translating a wide array of content, from technical documents to creative prose, consistently meeting the diverse needs of my clients. This journey has not only deepened my language proficiency but also enriched my cultural understanding, making me a trusted language professional in both Finnish and English. My dedication to precise and context-sensitive translations reflects my commitment to facilitating global communication and connecting people through the power of words.
